Quesadillas with Cheese and Jerky

Make with corn or masa harina tortillas. Corn is the traditional choice but either works well. Spread about a quarter cup of grated cheese, (Cheddar, Monterey Jack, or other grated cheese), mix on a tortilla and top the cheese with chopped Wild Ride Jerky of your choice. Spice it up with an authentic Mexican flavor with Jumpin' Hot & Spicy or Gallopin' Pepper, or smoky and hardy with Hoppin' Hickory. Place a second tortilla on top. Lightly oil a griddle or skillet and place the quesadilla on the greased skillet. Grill until the cheese starts to melt. Flip over and grill the other side until the cheese is melted and the quesadilla is warmed through.

Try adding chopped onion or refried beans. You can also make multiple layers to make a bigger quesadilla.
